28 a Year, in advance.]

INDIANAPOLIS, TUESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1843.

[Volume III ..... Number 8.

THE STATE SENTINEL

Southeast of the State House. The State Sentinel will contain about twice as much papers will be sent one year for the same; a square, (250 ems) and be continued at the rate of 25 cents. a square weekly. Quarterly advertisements inverted at $3 ment; they paused.

eash, or no attention will be paid to them. Er Postage must be paid.

The Pate of Monsieur Achille.

whiskers, small piercing eyes, dressed in the had died. extreme of fashion, surrounded by every arti-Jew and a plebeian.

an announcement from his valet, that the obtain admission without doing so.

Monsieur Achille's pale cheek flushed, then faded to a double sallowness, then he smiled, then almost trembled; at last he deannounce his speedy arrival; then, having splendid diamonds, in order to raise sufficient cabinet ministers at dinner at my Lord Har carefully revised his toilet and fortified himto the grand saloon.

The Duchess was standing with her back to him, examining a picture of exquisite beauty, which hang on the opposite side of the room; he had time to close the door and advance half way up the apartment before she became aware of his entrance or turned to greet him. When she did so, what a contrast did she present to him! She, in Duke and Duchess de Montifiere lived long had the power to anchain these men, and her calm and smiling beauty-so cold and so pround! so supremely levely! He, with his coarse and ordinary features, his ungainly figure, his embarrassed manner! The Duchess was a beautiful woman; perhaps she had never looked more beautiful than she did . that moment; her tall form drawn up to its full height, her simple white robe and bonnet, her rich, unadorned hair, ber pale lip trembled with a smile, the ineffable loveliness of which thrilled to the heart of the man before her, while he winced beneath its deep

She spoke first: "Monsieur Achille, I have come to beg a favor of you; but pray sit down." He obeyed her, and they seated themselves opposite to each other. "I have come to ask you for money; we know how rich you are. You must know how affairs sale of my jewels will not raise sufficient to pay this debt of honor of my husband's; but the gift of thirty thousand louis d'or.

"Thirty thousand louis, Madam!-you ask half what I possess."

"Not so, Monsieur Achille; one successful speculation will restore it to you. You will not miss it; to me, it will be life-more than life-honor. This with the sale of my diamonds, will bring us barely through."

Monsieur Achille was silent for sometime: then, with a bitter sneer, said-"Try de Valens and Beaufleur-will not these supply

"You mock me-you know they cannot. Oh! Monsieur Achille, have mercy-have on his feet. have had little mercy;" and then there was madam?" "Better than my life," was the reply, "Then rise, madam; seat yourself, and

That evening, about 9 o'clock, Monsieur dential valet to attend him, drove in the di- gave a fellow a shilling on some occasion phenomenon.—Edinburgh Review. rung in his cars so long-she, so worshipped, milk, potatoes; a stool is offered, or a stone is was given under the pyramids-the compa- wild creation of fancy, but you have only to so respected, whom calumny had never rolled, that your honor may sit and be out of nies in squares, the musicians at the angles, repair to this southern clime of poetry and his, at last-bought, bought with a price- in their own houses. Their natural dispositivest, what composer is there whom you recommend the Pyreners.

the Hotel Montifiere, he stopped, and gave next world; while an Englishman is making Milton !- Fashions vary; tastes change. Duke de Montifiore; that if the nobleman turned to fun and ridicule. They are terri- broad, unchanging instinct of popular judg- country! Let the air of liberty, not the simoon testimony to the following: turned; that he expected his cabriolet to be you on slight suspicion, and find out next day are exhausted, and the disputes of the the world will not then see so many exhausted saith Tristram Shandy "is to acknowledge his heart and the disputes of the the world will not then see so many exhausted, and the disputes of the the world will not then see so many exhausted, and the disputes of the the world will not then see so many exhausted. at that same spot in two hours' time; and that it was all a mistake, and that it was not schools are at an end, must decide upon wanderers sink down powerless, and fall un- it openly-at least in the opinion of half the massif the mass all a mistake, and that it was not schools are at an end, must decide upon wanderers sink down powerless, and fall un-turn on fool, and on no account to mention Excusu Agratons .- "Do they not recol- Chinese Erymologies .- A writer in the In published every Tuesday-Office on Washington Street, where he had left him, or to give any clue as lect that poor Henry Hunt, the respectable Boston Courier, who takes the signature of Alyth, Scotland, there lately fived a man rary Gazette of May, 1824, contains a de-

TERMS.-Two dollars a year, always in advance. In no Monsieur Achille reached the Hotel Monti- and had a triumphal entry into London. He received. Subscribers will receive due notice a few weeks fiore, and pausing at a small side entrance, saw his folly, and repented-he found that he before the expiration of each year or term, and if the payment into the court, gave a low whistle; the door could do nothing, and he went out of the be discontinued. This rule will be adhered to in all cases. was immediately opened by a figure so muf-One dollar will be received for six months, and fifty cents fled that it was impossible to distinguish either ten thousand times the man that O'Connell ADVERTISEMENTS, will be inserted three times at one dollar court, and reached a small and dark apart- disadvantage. Cobbett made a splendid in-terms, which should always be made in writing as agreed upon. ess. And now -- " he took tenderly the ex- and screw the pence out of the pockets of All advertisements from abroad must be accompanied by the tended hand of the figure-the grasp that the poor ; by the display of talent he acquirmet his was one of iron.

"Is it all gold?"

in Paris. Born and bred a Jew, he had, and great excitement prevailed in conse- sensation. when very young, from motives of interest, quence. On the third day his body was "Colonel Despurd, a gentleman of high conformed to the Christian faith; he was found in the river, some miles from the place character and courage, went one step beyond now about forty years of age, but looked some where his valet stated he had seen him last; these patriots, and linked himself with the years less, short, stout, sallow, with the fea- his pockets were rifled, his jewels gone; a people, and founded a society consisting of tures peculiar to his tribe, black hair, bushy ghastly wound in his breast showed how he Landar the cobbler, Broughton the milkcle of taste and luxury-in all extraneous cir- when the valet made his statement, in conse- ing the king, and overturning the governcumstances a gentlem in and "bel esprit"-but quence of which a visit was instantly paid by ment. Despard, we say, was a gentleman; in mind and heart, as in face and person, a the commissioners of police to the Hotel Mon- he had accomplices -we go further, and say tifiore, the result of which visit was, that the we know those accomplices, and know that One morning, at the early hour of eleven, valet was accested and tried for the murder they still live-live, loyal, and unsuspected. while seated at breakfast, he was startled by and robbery of his master. Want of evi- He might have betrayed them, and saved dence led to his acquittal.

him in the grand saloon; that she had come lamented the death of Monsieur Achille, as ter this man and his victums-for his they on foot, and unattended, and had only given the means of depriving her husband of a large were at second-hand-were sledged, hanged, her name when she found it impossible to loan which he was to have received on the behraded, and quartered, no human being night on which the murder was committed, cared for them or their fate, and their names and of which it was supposed Monsieur Achille even now are forgotten. was robbed while in the act of bringing it to - "Later came Thistlewood, and his associthe Hotel Montifiore. She also regretted ates. Their scheme was of an infernal char- sition into Chinese, for Washing-tung, as it sired his valet to return to the Duchess, and having been obliged to part with some of her acter-nothing more than annihilating the self with a glass from one of the bottles of All these debts were paid; and, after a what a disclosure of feelings and principles liquor on the table before him, he descended time, those matchless gems again blazed amid was there then made. There was a hitch in the pale gold of her rich hair, and spanned the plot-one fellow could not be ready to the snowy circle of her arm; the tresses were bring up the artillery from a depot in Gray's like sunlight, the arm like Parian marble, the Inn Lane, because he had to carry home a diamonds without price; none saw or dreamed pair of shoes at seven o'clock; another man of the blood-the blood-that bound them could not undertake to seduce a battalion of round that bright head, clasped them on that the guards, because he had to go round with arm, chained them to each other.

and apparently happy lives; no cloud over lead them to an enterprise which was as nearseemed to shade his gay and open brow, or by successful as possible, dim the lustre of her glorious beauty. His "What happened to this man? He was a darkened their prospects.

baying armies for its priesthood, and hecas were ready to rescue him or die, if he were tombs of human victims for its sacrifices. hung in the ordinary place of execution. slaughtered its millions : for while the form or patriot was langed, exactly as every murderof the latter is universal and unceasing. In- Bailey. His head was cut off, and held up perhaps, more gay, and crime of stealing two oxen from an open pass sions and forms : the houses are equal in stand with us; our revenues barely support the art of gain practised on a large scale? cess was performed upon all the rest of the last their conversation does not leave such geons beneath us, previous to his journey to in security and the rest of the last their conversation does not leave such geons beneath us, previous to his journey to in security. it must be paid, and paid to-morrow. You, for it is positively true—towards the end an hour with a well-educated German with tion with her fishions. Of course, it was to the wind on one side of who know every thing, must know all this; in all ages. For centuries, Africa, one quar- of the protracted execution, the mob who out teeling I had gained something; at all thought and advised by all who wi ned her the door. Neither in Venice nor in Canton ter of the globe, has been set apart to supply came to weep, began to laugh."-John Bull. events acquired food for thought. The well, that the new disgraceful connection are there any wheeled carriages or horses; come to request the loan-I might almost say the monster with victims, thousands at a meal. And, at this moment, what a popu- Skeren or James I .- If the morning is fine, is delightful; but they very seldom make one treaties and representations, she merely resentations, she merely resentations, she merely resentations are not poles agree the shoulders being practised mine with unnatural drudgery; the mann-factory with its swarms of squalid misery; is. Who would take him to be the son of the factory with its swarms of squalid misery; is. Who would take him to be the son of the same rank in France. I doubt whether him happy, how much more does he need it blance between two phrees so remote from the plantation with its imbrated gangs; and elegant Mary Queen of Scots? He is a red Frenchmen of the present day are so civil now he is gailty I' and declared her inten- each other, and so differently circumstanced. the market and exchange, with their furrow- faced man, corpulent, and ill set on his limbs as those of other countries; perhaps, because tions of accompanying him in his banished and care worn countenances, these are with a thin beard, large wandering eyes, and a they have had the reputation of being more ment. Accordingly, the mournful ceremony, only specimens of its more menial offices and tongue too big for his mouth; and he is trussed so, and therefore take less trouble. We the very antithesis of our last "marriage de subjects. Titles and honors are among its up in a huge bundle of cloths, the doublet stiletto- laughed a good deal at a scene we witnessed conveyance," was performed in the prison opponent of Mr. Marshal a few years since, rewards, and thrones at its disposal. Among proof, and the pockets as big as Hudibras's, at the table d'hote yesterday, where a vault, and in a few days after, the innocent exhibited his political pagging by informing the its counsellors are kings, and many of the great and mighty of the earth enrolled among its mercy!" and the Duchess, sinking on her is not voked to its car? Philosophy has ited by its natives ! What imperial element knees, clasped her white hands, and hid them self become a more narry in its pay, and sei become a more narry in its pay, and sei sterner fines night have envied. We are concern a first rate once, a votary at its shrine, bring all its no- and, among the closest of his attendants is a Spain. "You have had little mercy, madam-you blest discoveries as offerings to its feet. What page with a basket full of wines and liquers. Tremen Water-Nashus-Blave you was a pause. At last—"You love your husband, yielding up its last stores of hidden treasure out of his stomach; the huntsman winds his man to me, as we were passing the Vienna to the spirit of gain ? or retains more than a horn; the hounds are in full cry; and away to Aixe .- Comment?" I exclaimed, rather of. few miles of unexplored and unvanquished goes King James to his victory over the stag. puzzled by the question, when glaceing my territory? Scorning the childish dream of His want of courage being a baulk to his will eyes over the river, I immediately perceived the philosopher's stone, it aspires to turn the he is very fierce when the stag is taken; and the critical it; its limpid surface was in one preserves kingdoms and fill cities and churche straw in it. globe itself into gold.

she to whom all the nobles of the land had tion is turned to gaiety and happiness; while ognized as great-whose name rushes on the

to his proceedings and destination of that burner of rye and maker of blacking, infi- Choong Kwoh, says: nitely a braver man, and of a better breed The valet obeyed these orders to the letter, than O'Connell, was once a great creature, its sex or its age; with a silent movement, it ever was, or ever will be, as to intellect, beckoned him to follow; they crossed the placed himself on a pinnacle under every come of his talents-not by begging. He "I have brought it all, most lovely Duch- did not preach the poverty of the people, ed a splendid fortune-kicked down again by speculations injurious only to himself. He "All gold," he answered; and this was the was a political giant. He died at Barnes, of a cold in his head; and if a rushlight had Monsieur Achille was the richest banker Monsieur Achille was missing for two days; gone out, it would have created just as much man, and Ged knows how many other un-His servants were all strictly examined, happy wretches, for the purpose of mirderhimself—he chose the Roman alternative, and Duchess de Montifiere was waiting to see Among her intimate friends, the Duchess died. Who cared? In twenty-four hours af-> money to pay her husband's debts of honor, rowby's-shooting the covey sitting-and milk to his customers : and yet Thistlewood, Commissioner from the United States is very Monsieur Achille was soon forgotten. The an extremely clever man, and a good orator, backily gifted in this respect, for Cushing debts once paid, no future embarrassments patriot, and idolized by the 'unwashed;' and THE EMPIRE OF GOLD .- Gold is the only NEVER!!! and we nerfeetly remember it bepower which receives universal Lamage. It ingenerates reported that this would be deis worshipped in all lands without a single liverer of his roan ry would never be executtemple, and by all classes without a single by- ed. or if he were. it must be on the top of pocrite; and often has been able to boast of Newgate, for that two hundred thou and men

Where war has slain its thousands, gain has "When the morning came, an illustrious Boston regretants should ship a few books secure competency and respectability. operates only with the local and fitful terrors one scoundred had been hung previously, upof an earthquake, the destructive influence on the new drop, in the middle of the Old deed, war itself, what has is often been but as the head of a traiter, and the same prothe covetousness of a nation resolved on gain, party who had proposed to drop in sons far agreeable impressions on the mind, and sel- Siberia. The man was engaged to be mar- timely juparound bound, six fact long, with gift impatient of delay, and leading on its sub- con at Lord Harrowby's dinner; and so per- dom is so prolitable; it is more brilliant, but ried to a young mantua-maker, whose pretty I at its, hanging, not horizontally, like ours in jects to deeds of rapine and blood. Its his- feetly indifferent was the mob to the sight, not half so just. I have seldem talked for looks and ways had aften divided our atoms. It mope, but prop indicately, and left loose subjects. Where are the waters not ploughbustles down from his horse, with a vindictive spot studded with bright crimson in another and hysterical delight, to cut him up; though with blue, and so on to every color in the Achille, dressed with the utmost elegance, lass Wir and Hayon.—The poverty of should a strange face happen to look on, his rainbow, all of which I recognised as the it sits alone and is confined, and das in singu- once ask d by a young Problem before writer absorbed in a year bound of the poverty of should a strange face happen to look on, his rainbow, all of which I recognised as the shrouded in a very large cloak, under which the Irish is not exagerated—neither is their Majesty starts, and sides back, and does not head-fires of girls scated in first concrete up larity; but marriage, like the useful beet marriage, like the useful beet marriage. The neither is their Majesty starts, and sides back, and does not be the larity is the marriage. he carried a small but very heavy packet, wit-nor their good humor-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could to their necks in water. This sight, so nov- builds a house, and gathers sweetness from the small his more a total could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. This sight, so now be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whim- at all understand how his attendants could be carried as a small but very heavy packet. Wit-nor their whimentered his cabriolet, and, desiring his confi- sical absurdity-nor their courage. Wit-I have allowed the approach of so trying a his servant to take it home, and he would re- Thac genius and wisdom of Sir Walter Scott. laters may directly appeal .- Landor.

"When the thirteen stripes and stars first appeared at Canton, much curiosity was excited among the people. News was circulafurther end of the world, bearing a flag "as see the kwa kee chuen, or "llower flag ship." This name at once established itself in the language, and America is now called kwa kre knoh, the "flower flag country" - and an Amername first bestowed upon the Dutch.

It is well known that all proper names in Chinese are significant, every character in the language expressing a thing or an idea. as well as a sound. There are, consequentpending to our Tom. Dick, and Harry, Jones, Davis, and Jenkins: but a man's name must or Brown, Flood or Stone, Wood or Waters. Poreign names, however unmeaning originally, equire, when written in Chinese, a significance which is often strikingly curious.

most remarkable of these etymologies, which have yet come under my notice. The two flag of the ocean" -a most appropriate name for the banner which is now to be seen wherever there is blue water. The Chinese have no D, and Yankee Doodle would be written Yan-kee too to-lee, "the flag of the ocean, sove- cimens of the highest excellence. not suspect there is "something in it," we must give them credit for being less superstitious than many other people.

would be written, signifies no less than "res-

The Chinese attach great importance to expressive and high sounding names; and an mba-sa for tot the Court of Pekin, whose name had not something imposing in Chinese. would be received pretty much in the same thought of going minister to Spain. The were discussed with the utmost freedom. neans "ancient glory" - a name that will satisfy the most fastidious courtier courtier at more dishcult than Greek or German. He a lit rature which is three thousand years verance, and that genin, although it should old; that books in Claim are as cheap as sometimes miss the distinction it deserves, no respects between the cities of Canton and newspapers, and he suggests that the liberal will seldom fail, unless by his own fault, to for America along with their cargoes of tea.

el to me, was, as I learnt, one of every day's every flower, and labors and unites into speies the Prince de Tall y and I his mann alone occurence; the damsels that wash the linen ties and republies, and sends out colonies and was sufficient. The surpleious of fact some adjourning, after the completion of their fills the world with delicacies, and obeys their cast open the blus ing to be one of those looks was a long one; and he, proceeding at a lei- you owe me sixpence. Pat?" "May your No melody is immortal but that of the labors from the banks to the bed of the king Reeps order, and exercises many virtues with which he was would be read the human surely pace, had time to reflect upon and pon- honor live till I pay you!" There was cour- drum and the cannon. That alone is eter- stream, where they sit in merry and social and promotes the interest of manking; and be as by the expression of the cannon. der over the events of the day. She! whom tesy as well as art in this, and all the clothes nally reproduced. How the Carsican knew converie until the shades of evening warm is that state of things for which God hath de- the land to the land to the land to the converie until the shades of the day. he had so loved—she, who had so spurned, so on Pat's back would have been dearly bought to touch that instrument—the Handel of the them to their houses. We have all read of sined the present constitution of the world, and all the present constitution of the world. despised him—the woman he had once sued by the sum in question. Humor—Th re is iron flute! What brove tunes they played off nymphs of stream and fountain, and in our and prayed to; whose laugh of derision had perpetual kindness in the Irish cabin; butter at Borodino and at Eylau! What a concert simplicity, may have regarded them as the delicacies of friendship, the blessings of society reached, who stood in the centre of a profit the smoke, and those who beg every where and the shod feet of the Mameluke cavalry romance to find them actually living, and in it less of beauty and more of safety than a gate court, purer than fallen snow-she to be else, seem desirous to exercise free hospitality marking time upon the crusted sand! For the cognisable by the senses in all their loveli-

At the corner of the street, in which stood or, if easy on that subject, about hell in the with a sound like thunder, or the voice of can expand every flower of life-give freethe reins into the hands of his valet; he told a little hell in the present, because his muffin Who plays Hurcel?—who sings Arne? The dom to those innocent little ones, who, born A Quantum - Many a poor fellow, who are him that he was going on business to the is not well reasted-Pat's mind is always musician cannot throw himself upon the word to mortality, must wander through a stormy reputation has unjustly suffered, can bear entering upon the word to have the discount for the storm of the s was from home, he should wait until he re- bly excitable, to be sure, and will murd r ment, which, after the subtleties of criticism of restraint, accompany their first steps, and "To acquiesce under a report in sitems," ment which, after the subtleties of criticism of restraint, accompany their first steps, and that, if he was not there to meet it, he wished voorself that the meant to kill at all at all - questions of taste, and to which literary cre- der their burden, by the way side." - "The world, and to make it as strongly in the burden, by the way side." - "The world, and to make it as strongly in the literary cre-' Twins' by Miss Bremer.

Extraordinary Mechanic.-In the town | An Actual Picur.-The London Liteted that a strange ship had arrived from the passed. Deprived at an early age of the ed in London, (May, 1821.) was within a few ican, kwa kee kwoh yin-"flower flag country- which being raised about eighteen inches its effect upon the mind. To see rationality. man"-a more complimentary designation above the clothes, were employed as a plat-sportiveness, intelligence, all the faculties of tools of all kinds.

tory of James Sandy, we may learn this very pretty," for she has I arnt a little English. instructive Irsson-that no difficulties are tooidds, that China is full of books produced by great to be overcome by industry and persis-Granty's and Parvent.-The French are, town having been convicted of the flagrant of light; the shops are of the same dimenoften pleasanter, for the present moment; ture, near Revel, was now lying in the dun- height. The only difference appears to be French make one laugh, and their lively wit would be reliaquished; but resisting all on- the same method of currying loads at the end lous and gigantic empire can it boast! the his Majesty, King James is, to a certainty, think. The middle classes of Germans appeared a faithful woman's argument. The his half places, a circumstance that tends Round his neck is a ruff. His hat is stuck Frenchman, after helping himself to all Ce and guilty now become one, started on their crowd which he was addressing, that his self is, in a manner, into the saddle, upon a next him, and said, with a most indinating took with her the sympathy and blossing of many a good harrel for them. Tom, in reply, beautiful horse trained not to stumble. Some smil . "Madame, ne mange pas de volaille!" every true woman's heart, and left behind included in the following strain :- Fellow stermer times neight have envied. We are opponent father, was a cooper a first rate that to learn this journey did not continue conner, a plorious couper, a perfect smadler tion of his wift, a pandon reached the offend- but fellow extrems, hours to one barri (point-> es. Celibacy, like the fly in the heart of an apple, dwells in perpetual sweetness: but Tarren Some sees - Valleymand was Marriage bath in it the labors of love and the and the union of hands and hearts. It hath single life; it is more merry and more sail, it is fuller of joys and fuller of sorrows; it lies under more burdens but it is supported by all points for not even an Aspesia rould have LITTLE CHILDREN .- "Freedom -freedom the strength of love and charity; and these moved him to an act likely to injure his in-opinion of the other hall."

of much provincial celebrity of the name of scription of a female dwarf, even more extra-James Sandy. The originality and eccentri- ordinary in diminutiveness of size, than Tom city of character which distinguished this re- Thumb. Her name was Crachami, a Sicilmarkable person, have been but rarely sur- ian by birth, and at the time she was exhibituse of his legs, he contrived by dint of lage- months of being ten years old. The writer nuity not only to pass his time agreeably, but in the Gazette says, "seeing is believing," to render himself a useful member of society. and unless he had actually seen her, he could He soon displayed a taste for mechanical pur- not have credited so extraordinary a variety suits, and contrived, as a workshop for his in human nature. He says, "It is impossible operation, a sort of circular bed, the side of to describe the miracle of her appearance, or than that of ered headed barbarian"-the form for turning lathes, tables, vices, and humanity, in a being so inconceivably below the standard at which we have ever His genius for practical mechanics was witnessed them, so overturns all previous imuniversal. He was skilled in all sorts of pressions, that, even with the fact before us, turning, and constructed several very curious, we doubt the evidence of our senses. A tollathes, as well as clocks and musical instru- erably sized doll, acting and speaking, would ly, no unmeaning names in Chinese, corres- ments of every description, no less admired not astonish us so much, for nature is, in this for the sweetness of their tone than their ex- instance, far more wonderful than art could ecution. He excelled, too, in constructing be. Only imagine a creature about half as be something like House or Burnes, White optical instruments, and made some reflect- large as a new born infant; perfect in all ing telescopes, the specula of which were parts and lineaments, attering words in a were not inferior to those furnished by the strange, unearthly voice, understanding what most eminent London artists. He suggested you say, and replying to your questions; imsome improvements to the machinery for agine, I say, this figure of about nineteen Yankee Doodle and Washington are the spinning flax, and, we believe, he was the inches in height, and five pounds in weight, first who made the woo len joined snuff boxes, and you have some idea of this extraordinary commonly called kirk boxes, some of which phenomenon. And the more you look, the Chinese characters, Yang kee, signify "the fabricated by this self-taught artist, were pur- more you reflect, the more incredible it apchased and sent as presents to the royal pears that this can be real. But true it is; family. To his other knowledge, he added here is the fairy of your superstition in actual an accurate knowledge of drawing and en- life; here is the pigmy of ancient mythology graving, and in both these arts produced spes brought down to your own day; the expression of her countenance varies with whatever reign people of the world!" This is an omen bed only three times, and on these occasions mind and soul in this diminutive frame!) her For upwards of two years he quitted his affects her mind, (for, on my faith, there is a his house was either inundated with water, or benufited tiny hand, (for the fore-inger of threatened with danger from fire. His curi- which, the ring of a very small shirt button osity, which was unbounded, prompted him would be much too wide around.) has all the to batch different kinds of birds' eggs, by the motions and graces which are found in the natural warmth of his body, and he after- same comber of a levely woman; she threatwards raised the motley broad with all the en-, she displays her fondness for finery, she cue and glory at last"-could the name and tenderness of a parent; so that on visit- likes her drop of wine, she shows her dipleafuther of his country be expressed with more ing him, it was no uncommon thing to see sure, she chooses, and rejects; in fine, she is various singing birds, to which he may be as perfect as a common child of the same age. said to have given birth, perched on his bead lifer walk is rather tottering, and her voice, and warbling the artificial notes he had (a I have sold) very remarkable. Her genetaught them. Naturally possessed of a good rad appearance is not unpleasing, though constitution, and an active mind, his house there is a little of the simila in the form of the was the general coffee-room of the village, teature-t her health is good, and her body, way that Bubb Doddington anticipated when where the affairs of both church and state limbs, &cc. are complete. I took her up. caresed and soluted her; and it was most In consequence of long confinement, his laughable to see her resent the latter freedom, countenance had rather a sickly cast, but it wiping her check, and expressing her dislike was remarkably expressive, and would have to the rough chin. But her great antipathy afforded a fine subject for the pencil of Willis to doctors; these leave offended her by exic. Mana Tang, and augurs a prosperous is- kie, particularty when surrounded by his amining her too minutely, and whenever they sue to the "whole pigeon," as the Chinese country friends. This singular man had ac- are mentioned, she doubles her filbert of a quired, by his ingenuity and industry, an how list, and munificuts her decided displeasures. Of Chinese has been said to be a language al- ocable independence, and passessed of con- her trinkers she seems very proud, taking off most impossible to be learned by a foreigner. Siderable property. He married about three her ring to show it, and pointing to her earweeks before his death. From this brief his rings with the joyous exchanation of "very

CANTON AND VENTER.—Captain B. Hall has noticed a remarkable resemblance in matween one of the canal bridges of the lafter. FEMALE DEVOYEDERS .- A butcher of the prices are prived, he says, in the same degree TON MARSHAL AND THE BARREL .- AH nether than Moncow, for there, in comiderns of a conner, and made your many a good barrel ing to Mr. P. ) in which he forgot to put w good Lord."-P, slaped, and Tom the wasn't Marriage is the mother of the world, and a touteta for them; rook a brandy jump with a > writing it me the hadiom or in the middle of the page, he donisted not that he should find it the pext day at his bonder, with an order for twenty ar . July thousand Immes within have it. If the vorme budy really intended advance A By my soul, General, I will do then, will my shelinlah. The formeral was casal the whole eve-